

Calvin Liang Plein Air Oil Painting Workshop

Beginner to advanced level

Calvin Liang

October 25 – 29, 2010

9:00AM to 4:00 PM

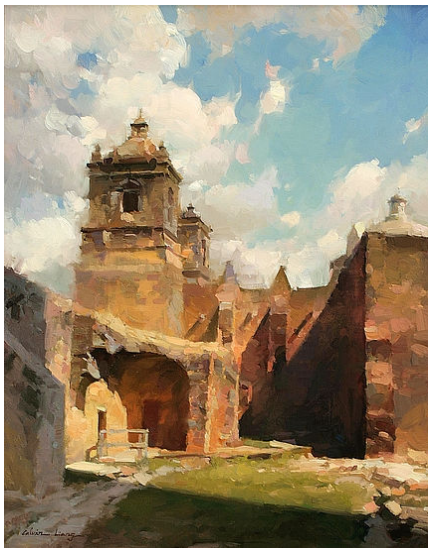

Location

Various locations
In and near
Austin, TX

Tuition - $575

*Portable Easel Necessary
Workshop limited to 15 students*

DESCRIPTION

Calvin Liang's teaching will focus on painting at location from direct observation to achieve better understanding of composition, design and color harmony.

The lessons will cover 1) planning a composition effectively to express the artist's intentions and preferences; 2) seeing and using warm and cool colors in landscape; 3) commanding hard and soft edges to create space effect; 4) Utilizing design, value, color, and drawing skills to simplify the subject matter 5) consideration of paint texture and brushstroke orientation to generate forms; and 6) getting the best possible results within a limited time.

BIO

Calvin Liang was professionally trained at Shanghai Academy of Fine Arts in China. After moved to US in 1987, Liang had a successful career in Walt Disney and Nichelodeon Studios worked on Little Mermaid and SpongeBob Squarepants. Becoming a full-time fine artist in 2002, Liang has won multiple top awards in major art shows including Annual C. M. Russell, OPA Nationals, PAPA Invitational, and more. American Art Collectors, Southwest Art, American Artist, and Workshop Magazine have featured frequently Liang's work. In 2004 Liang's work graced the cover of the Art of the West's special 16th Anniversary Edition. Calvin Liang is a Mast Member of the Oil Painters of America and American Impressionist Society, and Signature Member of California Art Club and Laguna Plein Air Painters Association. His paintings are showing in the Greenhouse Galleries in San Antonio, and other major galleries. Calvin Liang lives with his wife and son in Southern California.

Send inquires to: Yuehong Song (yuehongsong188@yahoo.com) or phone 512-258-5188